On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Southampton as the season gets into its hectic stride.

We started with a 1-1 draw at home against Aston Villa, and while I am never happy at dropping a home point, we had to fight back from behind to earn a draw.

I was disappointed at going a goal down against Villa just when it seemed we had the game in our grasp.

And it took a Neil Whatmore goal to earn us a point which I felt we well deserved.

DESERVED

I also felt we deserved a point at Liverpool on Tuesday night.

Not many sides go to Anfield and come away with anything other than a good hiding.

Last season we lost 3-0 there and we really made hard work of things, so it looks as if we have learned a lot since then.

I made one change from the side that played Villa for the Liverpool game bringing an extra player, David Burke into midfield to do a particular job.

This is one of the bonuses of having a squad system like we have at Burnden. It is possible to select a side for an occasion and it is something that will happen more and more as time goes on.

OPPONENTS

We now know our opponents in the Anglo-Scottish Cup quarter-finals are St. Mirren.

You can read more about them in this issue, and I think it is sufficient for me to say that having got this far, we intend to go all the way.

But back to today's visitors. I always look forward to our games against Southampton.

We usually have a rare tussle and I expect today's game to be no exception.

Welcome to SOUTHAMPTON

A final placing mid-way in the table, and a Cup Final appearance at Wembley, made it a highly rewarding first season back in the first Division for Southampton last season.

Manager Lawrie McMenemy was quite happy with the way things went, after an uneasy start, and he didn't seem too concerned with making any major signings during the close-season.

Mr. McMenemy did spend some time on the continent looking at European players, and there was some speculation that he might make a killing. But the big kick-off arrived with the Saints looking very much as they left off last term.

Many of the positions look well settled now and we can expect to see a back four of Ivan Golac, Malcolm Waldron, Chris Nicholl and David Peach. The midfield, too, appears to pick itself with Steve Williams, Alan Ball and Nicky Holmes the likely choice.

But there is going to be an interesting tussle for the goalkeeping position. Terry Gennoe took over early on last season and looked very confident until he faced Nottingham Forest at Wembley in the League Cup final. He struggled a bit in subsequent matches and Peter Wells was restored to the side for the remainder of the season.

It will be interesting to see if the summer rest has restored the unfortunate Charlie George to full fitness and, if so, how he will fit into the attack.

He was injured before his £400,000 transfer from Derby last season and spent many more weeks struggling to attain match fitness.

If George is not fit then Austin Hayes or Trevor Hebbard will probably come in and we could see the former Manchester United player Oshor Williams on the wing.

Runs in both Cups made it one of Southampton's best seasons for a long while. They knocked out Wimbledon, Preston and West Bromwich in the F.A. Cup and were eventually overcome in the sixth round in a replay at Arsenal after a tremendous rush of fixtures had knocked much of the stuffing out of them.

Teams knocked out by the Saints on the way to Wembley in the League Cup were Birmingham, Derby, Reading,

Manchester City and Leeds. David Peach gave them an interval lead against Nottingham Forest in the final but they were hit by a second-half Forest avalanche and they eventually lost 2-3.

Returning to the First Division after a four-year absence, the Saints inevitably made a slow start and by mid-November were very much caught up in the relegation battle.

Slowly the team began to find its confidence and, after the turn of the year, a sequence of good results pulled them well away from the danger zone.

Like most newly-promoted teams the Saints tended to play it very cautiously when away from home and they managed to chalk up only three away victories in the League — at Manchester City (2-1), Q.P.R. (1-0) and Chelsea (2-1). But they drew six times and several of their defeats were by only the one-goal margin.

Much discussion has been taking place recently in the Southampton area about the possibilities of obtaining a new ground. An ideal site is already available close to the railway station and alongside a motorway but the major problem is raising the cash for what would be a multi-million pound project.

So The Dell seems likely to be the Saints home for a while longer yet and the club will have to be content with a ground limit of around 25,000 spectators.

They averaged out at around the 21,000 mark last season which meant that the fans were always tightly crammed into the ground and there is still a great scarcity of seats.

Yet, having the fans so tightly packed around them does have some advantages for the Saints. When they are playing well the atmosphere can be quite electric, and beneficial to the players.

Last season, for instance, they were beaten only twice in 27 home League and Cup matches.

But a new ground is still high on the priority list for Mr. McMenemy who was persuaded to stay with the club, rather than accept an offer from Sunderland last year, with the promise that steps would be taken to try and bring about an early realisation of his dream of a new stadium.

PETER WELLS (Goalkeeper) Peter lost his place after the opening games of last season but was recalled for the closing weeks of the campaign. He made his league debut for Nottingham Forest in 1975 and was transferred to the Saints about a year later.

TERRY GENNOE (Goalkeeper) Terry played in the lower league with Bury and Halifax Town and was signed by Southampton for £40,000 in 1977. He took over the first-team spot early last season and played for the Saints in the League Cup final at Wembley.

IVAN GOLAC (Defender) Ivan is a Yugoslav international who came across to this country a year ago. Southampton arranged a work permit and he made his League debut for them, against Bolton, just a year ago.

MALCOLM WALDRON (Defender) Malcolm served his apprenticeship at The Dell and was introduced to the first-team in 1974/75. He won a regular place three seasons back and has now switched from a right-back to central defender.

CHRIS NICHOLL (Defender) Chris is a current member of the N. Ireland team and 22 caps to his credit. Once with Witton Albion, he signed for Halifax in 1968 and moved on to Luton for £25,000 a year later. Aston Villa invested £75,000 in his transfer in 1972 and collected £90,000 when he moved on to Southampton in 1977.

DAVID PEACH (Defender) David is an England under-21 international and in 1977 he went on tour with the full England party. After serving his apprenticeship with Gillingham, David made his League bow in 1969 and when he moved to Southampton in 1974 he commanded a £50,000 fee.

MANNY ANDRUSZEWSKI (Defender) Manny is one of many former Saints' apprentices to make the first-team grade. He got his big chance in 1974/75 and won a regular place two seasons ago. He dropped out again last term, though he played several games when other defenders were injured.

ALAN BALL (Midfield) Alan is one of England's 1966 World Cup winning team. He won a total of 72 England caps and was appointed captain towards the end of his international career. His first club was Blackpool but he moved on to Everton in 1966 for £112,000. Arsenal paid £220,000 for him five years later and it seemed he had stepped out of top flight soccer for the last time when he joined Southampton for £60,000 in 1977. But 18 months later he skippered the Saints back into Division One.

STEVE WILLIAMS (Midfield) Steve has been in the Saints side for three years now and has become a regular member of the England under-21 side.

NICKY HOLMES (Midfield) Nicky is another Saints' discovery who has been in the first-team since his debut in 1974. He was in the Southampton side that defeated Manchester United in the 1976 F.A. Cup final.

PHIL BOYER (Forward) Phil has played for England at full and under-23 levels and was Southampton's top scorer with 15 goals last season. He began as a reserve player at Derby and made his League bow after joining York in 1968. Bournemouth paid £20,000 for him in 1971 and he remained with them until Norwich signed him for £145,000 in 1974. Southampton paid £125,000 for him in 1977 and he has been a consistent goalscorer ever since.

CHARLIE GEORGE (Forward) Southampton paid a club record £400,000 for Charlie last season but injuries severely limited his appearances for the club. A former England international, Charlie began his career with Arsenal and moved on to Derby in 1975 for £80,000. He was on two occasions the Rams' top scorer.

TREVOR HEBBERD (Forward) Trevor came through to the League eleven three seasons ago but didn't win a regular place until the departure of Ted McDougall last season.

AUSTIN HAYES (Forward) Austin made his first League appearance in 1976/77 but it wasn't until the later weeks of last season that he gained a regular place and he had the thrill of his life when he played in the League Cup final at Wembley.

GRAHAM BAKER (Midfield) Graham made a few League appearances two seasons back and eased himself more into the side last term. Another former Saints' apprentice to make it in the First Division.

OSHOR WILLIAMS (Forward) Oshor turned professional with Manchester United in August 1976 but didn't reach the first-team at Old Trafford. Southampton signed him and gave him a few runs in the side towards the end of last season.

Wanderers - a unique record

Today we present part two of the magnificent new series which charts the Wanderers' progress right back from their First Football League match in 1888 right up until the present day.

It is important that you should collect the series right from the outset because we shall be recording the results of every competitive game ever played by the club and we shall be publishing the League appearances and goalscorers for each season.

When you have completed the set you will have a unique record of the club.

This is bound to become a collectors' item and we anticipate having a big demand for back copies of the programme — just as have other clubs who have run a similar series.

The only way to ensure you keep your own records intact is to get a copy of all our home match programmes during the run of the series.

Scotland, Here we come!

Once again this year, manager Ian Greaves chose to use the increasingly popular Anglo-Scottish Cup competition as part of the team's build-up to the League programme. And once again the move paid dividends for the Wanderers.

Three highly competitive games, a 2-2 draw at home against old rivals Bury; a competent 3-1 win at Oldham and a convincing 2-0 home win against Second Division Sunderland proved the perfect pre-season warm-up.

The games in themselves were of great value to the players both in terms of fitness and as an ideal way to put team tactics to the test. But they also put Wanderers in with a chance of some silverware.

Before the first match against Bury, the manager expressed his intentions of doing well in the competition and the team did just that.

COMFORTABLY

They won their qualifying group comfortably and earned a quarter final tie against Scottish Premier League side St. Mirren. The first leg will be at St. Mirren on Wednesday September 19 with the return leg at Burnden on Tuesday October 2.

St. Mirren, managed by former Bury centre-half Jim Clunie, finished sixth in the Premier League last season and though they have lost two of their players to English clubs during the summer, the Paisley club are hoping to do well again this term.

Saints figured in two big transfer deals during the close season. They sold midfield star Tony Fitzpatrick to Bristol City for £250,000 and striker Frank McGarvey to Liverpool for £300,000.

They offset the loss of these two talented stars by buying two strikers; Frank McDougal from Clydebank for £180,000 and Dougie Somner from Partick Thistle for £100,000.

McDougal is a talented winger who was Clydebank's top scorer last season with 28 goals. Somner, in five seasons with Partick has scored close on 100 goals.

TADEUSZ NOWAK

TOUGH TEST

Much is expected of these two in the matches that lie ahead and the Wanderers' defence could be in for a tough test if they are to progress in the competition.

St. Mirren's ground is known as "Love Street" but you can bet there'll be no love lost when they play host to the Wanderers.

One of the comparatively new faces at Burnden - Tadeusz Nowak - has soon won the hearts of Wanderers' fans. It was to be expected that he would have his name shortened and he is now referred to as either "Tad" or "Taddy".

His speedy show against Ajax in that entertaining friendly was really something.

He caused a number of problems for the Ajax defence and full-back Meutstege must have been relieved to leave the field at the end - the Polish winger ran the legs off him.

Veteran goalkeeper Piet Schrijvers was also counting his blessings, having to pull out good saves to keep out Tad's accurate shots.

Here's to more of the same Tad!

First Division Focus

MULLERY SO CONFIDENT

Brighton and Hove Albion last week stepped tentatively into the First Division for the first time in their history, fully recognising that they have an almighty battle on their hands.

But manager Alan Mullery, who has lifted the club from the Third to the First Division in three years, is confident his team will be up to the challenge.

"Now we are up we shall certainly not be going back!" declared Mr. Mullery. "Look, in the past few years people have come to look upon Brighton as a successful club. And I can tell you this — we shall fight to the last gasp to stay that way."

Mullery is realistic enough to concede that Brighton will not emulate Nottingham Forest and win the League Championship in their first season up.

"It would be wrong to talk like that," he said. "But we must go out there saying to ourselves that we're going to have a real go at knocking over such teams as Liverpool, Forest and Arsenal. If we don't adopt that attitude we shall achieve nothing."

Next Saturday Bolton go to the Goldstone Ground to face a Brighton side that will probably contain only one new signing — the versatile John Gregory, signed from Aston Villa for £250,000.

"I should have liked to have had some more First Division experience in several positions," said Mr. Mullery. "But not at the silly prices being asked this summer."

Surprisingly, there have been no offers for Brighton's England under-21 striker Peter Ward who was placed on the transfer list a few weeks ago.

Bristol City Manager Alan Dicks went into the new season with one major problem still unanswered. With last season's two central defenders Norman Hunter (to Barnsley) and Gary Collier (Coventry) now having left the club, he was hoping to make at least one signing before the opening of the season.

Geoff Merrick, who formerly played in the middle but then moved over to left-back to accommodate Hunter, was expected to fill one of the middle positions and Mr. Dicks was checking upon the fitness of Ipswich and N. Ireland centre-back Allan Hunter.

Ipswich, who have Kevin Beattie and the young pair Russel Osman and Terry Butcher now on the fringe of international status, have agreed to part with Hunter.

But he missed most of last season through injury and Bristol City were watching his progress in pre-season friendlies to try and determine his fitness.

Though Southampton have agreed to release their England youth midfield player George Shipley, he seems likely to remain at The Dell for a little longer.

His prospects of getting into the first Division side are not too high at the moment but he enjoyed a loan spell with Reading last season and had been offered the chance to play regular League soccer this season with the Berkshire club who had a bid of £20,000 accepted by The Saints. But, after careful thought, Shipley rejected the move.

Big shock for Spurs was the illness of Argentinian star Osvaldo Ardiles on the eve of the new season. "He was off with 'flu for a while," explained manager Keith Burkinshaw. "He told me he has been very weak for some days and we sent him for a blood test to try and pinpoint the trouble."

Another set-back for Spurs was the sending-off of former Bolton defender Don McAllister in a friendly at Aberdeen. He was automatically suspended for the club's opening League game of the season against Middlesbrough.

Stoke City, newly promoted to the First Division, strengthened their defence when paying Fulham £100,000 for Ray Evans who last played in the First Division about five years ago.

He was Spurs' right-back on 136 occasions in the First Division and then moved on to Millwall for £37,000. Fulham paid £20,000 for him in 1977.

Another London full-back making a First Division come-back is John McDowell who has left West Ham to join Norwich City in a £90,000 deal. McDowell has also played in midfield but his best position is in the back four.

Meet the Ref

GEORGE COURTNEY (Spennymoor, Co. Durham). Started refereeing in 1962 and has progressed through the Auckland District League, Wearside League, Northern League and the Football League line to the full list.

In 1977 he refereed the FA Trophy Final and in 1978 was referee/linesman in the UEFA Youth Tournament. He refereed the Republic of Ireland v West Germany international in 1979 and was senior linesman for a European Nations Cup match and a pre-Olympic qualifier.

Spent four months refereeing on the North American Soccer League circuit. A member of the FIFA panel of referees.

Married, he is deputy headmaster of a primary school and is actively connected with many sports keeping fit by playing league squash, golf and cricket.

How to get there

Fans travelling by road to the Wanderers' game at Brighton are advised by the RAC to take the following route.

Leave Bolton on the A666/M61/M62 to intersection 10 M6 at Croft (16 miles).

M6/M1 south to intersection 1, Staples Corner, junction A406 (212 miles).

A406 North Circular Road west to Chiswick roundabout, junction with A205 (221 miles).

A205 South Circular Road via Kew, Mortlake, Putney and Wandsworth to junction with A23 (230 miles). Then A23/M23/A23 (275 miles).

*Fans should note that road works on the M6 at Junction 15 (Stoke on Trent area) and between junctions 7 and 10 (Wallsall/Birmingham area) could cause delays. Allow more time for your journey if you don't want to miss the kick-off.

Wanderers Travel Club

Travel facilities to away games are again available through the official Wanderers Travel Club to members who produce their membership card when booking and carry their card on all coach or rail trips.

Membership of the Travel Club for the coming season is now being accepted by the promotions office and costs just 50p for the year (free for agents).

A passport size photograph is all that is required along with the membership fee. Support your team and follow the Wanderers with the official Travel Club, starting next Saturday (September 1) with the trip to Goldstone Ground, the home of Brighton.

Under New Management

The 'Happy Shop', the club's Aladdin's Cave of Wanderers' souvenirs, reopened for business at the start of the season.

Under the management of the promotions department, the shop is staffed by Geoff and Audrey Street and is open every week day from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. and until an hour after the end of the game on match days.

And it's certainly one place in Bolton that Wanderers fans can not afford to miss.

The Happy Shop stocks everything for the ardent fan ranging from programmes, diaries and official players photographs to T-shirts, bath towels and authentic Wanderers' playing strip.

If you have a gift problem call in and see Geoff or Audrey, they will almost certainly be able to solve it for you.
